

Dear FCC

I am very concerned about Sinclair Broadcasting's pressure to make their stations broadcast an anti-Kerry documentary just shortly before the election. It is just plain not right and I think that the FCC has a responsibility to act, not just rubber-stamp license approvals.

Yours,
Tim Baker